Meeting with Lakeville Board of Selectmen Regarding the Water Levels on Long Pond and Assawompset Pond

Chris Peck – DPW Director Middleborough, David DeManche, Town Administrator Freetown, Aaron Burke, John Powderly, Mitzy Hollenbeck – Lakeville BOS, Rita Garbit – Town Administrator, Normal Orrall – State Rep were present for the discussion.

Aaron Burke thanked the Board for hosting the discussion. He noted that there have been several residents that have attending their Selectmen’s meetings to ask about the water levels within the pond complex. He notes that both Assawompset and Long Pond drain through the river in Middleborough. He wants to open dialog on the discussion of pond levels to look at it in terms of emergency preparedness and mitigation in the event of flooding.

Mitzy Hollenbeck spoke about the Assawompset Pond Complex group and explained that she is the Board’s liaison to the group. She explains that the meet down at the Taunton Water works and that they have been working together to look at the pond levels. In examining the historical levels there are two pieces she’d like to discuss. The first is that the levels at Long pond are the same as they were prior to the 2010 flooding, Assawompset is the same and the groundwater levels for both bodies of water are high as well. It is like the perfect storm.

Jim Kenney, reviews with the Boards the highlights of an integrated approach to help reduce flooding in the Assawompsett Pond Complex. The plan is to establish a strategic flood plain in the Upper Nemasket Water Basin – between the Assawompsett Pond dam and the Wareham Street dam. The plan would be put into action beginning in early September and run for approximately five months through January of the following year. This would allow a safer, better controlled method to more rapidly lower APC surface water level during periods of extended heavy precipitation.
Mr. Kenney further explains that it would begin by allowing extra flow over the bascule dam spillway to reduce water volume in the upper watershed and to try to get the spillway to its lower elevations. He added that Taunton would need to minimize flow through the Assawompsett dam by allowing the lake level to reach approximately 53’ (NAVD 88). This would provide a standby reserve of water volume. He acknowledged that all decisions would be guided by extremes (high or low) in the prevailing conditions of surface and ground water levels. He stresses the key is to start early to reduce the overall water volume.

Ms. Hollenbeck spoke about the meetings that are held regularly on this whole issue and how she would like the residents to understand that the Town Officials are not taking this lightly and that they are looking at all the factors that are out of our control, such as groundwater elevation, and unpredictable weather and trying to come up with an action plan before we get to a flooding situation similar to what happened in 2010. There is discussion on the 18 inches of rain that happened in ten days, creating the perfect storm. Ms. Hollenbeck reiterates that they are not looking for the Town to respond to this presentation but that they want to open dialog with Rochester and Freetown and have a Regional Perspective and dialog on it.

Selectmen Frawley provides a power point presentation of the Nemasket River from the view of a canoe on the river. He provides slides showing obstructions and man-made bridges that restrict the flow of the water.

Chris Peck, DPW Director, spoke about the Wareham Street bascule dam and confirms that they are responsible for moving it up or down through conversations with New Bedford. There is discussion on how in 2009 the bascule dam was lowered all the way down and it ended up drying up the river and the herring were stuck in the riverbeds. He agrees that everyone has to work together on a regional basis.

David DeManche, Town Administrator - Freetown, reiterates his Town’s position, which is to support the regional effort and that they are willing to work as a partner to help solve the problem.

Several residents from Lakeville and Freetown spoke about the previous flooding and the concern over the Assawompset and Long Pond water levels.

Norman Orrall speaks in favor of the regional meetings and discussion on the water level issues and notes that he asks that the State Representatives and the Senator be kept in the loop of the regional meetings.

Ms. Hollenbeck speaks further about having an open dialog regionally to make progress on the issue. The Board of Selectmen agreed to participate and assist in any way that they can with this.
Meeting w/ Siemens to discuss the HVAC Assessment and Report on the Old Police Station

Brendan Leary, Siemens, was present for the discussion. Mr. Leary discussed with the Board the proposal for 40 hours of investigation only of what exactly needs to be fixed on the existing heating system at the Old Police Station. Mr. Leary explains that is the plan of the study to determine what needs to be replaced.

Upon motion made by Selectmen Frawley and seconded by Selectmen Rosenthal, the Board voted unanimously to approve and authorize the Town Manager to sign the SIEMENS proposal for the Old Police Station Technical HVAC Assessment and Report.

Mr. Buker explained that the changes in the law are umbrellas and anything that is combustible or vaporized the same rule now applies the same as a regular cigarette.

Selectmen Rosenthal speaks about the alarming rate of vaping in the schools, which is why he asked that the Board take a look at and discuss this. It is asked if DJ Wilson would attend a Selectmen’s Meeting and present the slideshow on vaping for the public. Mr. Buker will look into that. There is discussion on having the Middleborough Matters group do a presentation at an upcoming Selectmen’s Meeting. R. Nunes will look into that. Selectmen Rosenthal noted how dark it is across from the Alley Theater and the noted that the elderly have issues with walking from the theater to the Town’s parking lot, there are safety concerns in that area.

Selectmen Frawley asked what the process is for approving lighting requests. Sandy Richter, Public Communications Manager for the Middleborough Gas & Electric, explained that the Board would need to vote to pay for the charges and the installation of the light, or for a greater watt bulb.
